From The Principal's Office

Assalaam-o-Alaikum Dear Parents,

I was Amazed with the number of our student who read last week, Many of them came and shared the Arabic story they read with the class. To encourage them we are going to give each student a reading log so parents can fill it out each time your child read, and submit it to the teacher. The student with the most point will get to go to the treasure box in the principle office. Reading log is also available online under the Arabic Resource.

Sunday School Attendance

As we start the school year, we are committing ourselves to be punctual and consistent with school attendance. Punctuality is an Islamic value and it demonstrates your respect for other people and their time. Please note that the school starts promptly at 11:00am and finishes at 3:00pm. Please make sure that your child is at school by 10:55 am and you pick them up at 3:00pm.

Given the strong demand for enrollment, we are going to follow the three continuous absence rules. If your child is absent for 3 continuous weeks without explanation, they will be dropped from enrollment and the next child on the waiting list will be invited to enroll.

Please help us by being punctual and consistent. Thank You
